Curriculum at St. Ursula Academy stresses well-rounded personality development

Saint Ursula Academy, conducted by the Ursuline Nuns, has served the Toledo area for over a century in training and educating young women for successful Christian living. Through the years the Ursulines have emphasized that personal development carries with it a responsibility to mature spiritually, academically, culturally, and physically.

Enlightened young women must serve as the fountainhead of strength and virtue in our complex, challenging society. In order to be effective in this kaleidoscopic twentieth century, women must be spiritually oriented, intellectually alert, personally dedicated to bring faith, hope, and charity into their family, their community, their nation, their world.

And Charity. . .'

Faith In God, In Oneself, In Fellowman

Faith is the centrifugal force which draws us toward the goal of eternal happiness. Belief in God, in oneself, in fellowman is the dynamic force which determines personal success or failure. God gave man the power to reason, to judge, to will. Man must be properly educated in order that this power can be actualized.

Realizing this need, the Ursulines responded by presenting a well integrated course of study designed to strengthen the intellect and the will. Spiritual formation, interwoven into every aspect of the school curriculum, brings the student closer to her goal of Christian living. Classes challenge the intellect and prepare the leader of tomorrow to assume her role. Sports and social activities offer means for developing wholesome habits. Combine—an exciting basketball game, a mock nominating convention in American government, an exhilarating snowball fight, and receiving the long-awaited class ring, a quiet minute before the outdoor Christmas creche—for an introductory glance of life at S.U.A.

--Springboard To Virtue

Hope Expedites Search For Truth, Justice And Dignity

"Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope and in the power of the Holy Spirit."

Hope is a natural consequence of a lively faith, releasing energy in order to accomplish the tasks set before us. In the search for truth, justice, and dignity, hope points the way to active Church and community life. Educated, articulate citizens are the basic strength of the Church and the nation.

We, the Senior Class of Saint Ursula Academy, extend to our Most Reverend Bishop George J. Rehring, on the occasion of the Golden Jubilee of his ordination to the holy priesthood, our best wishes and prayers that God may continue to bless him abundantly. We are grateful to Bishop Rehring for his energetic devotion to his pastoral duties as he leads us to a greater knowledge of truth, justice, and dignity.

'The Greatest Of These Is Charity'

Charity is universal, abounding anywhere that man so wills. Charity is unlimited, temporal, eternal. In the young Church, the charity of Christ touched and lighted the fires of brotherly love. In the growing Church, it has been perpetuated by His successors.

A Peter, a John, a Paul St. Peter transmitted the love of Christ to the infant Church. Pope John XXIII whose kindness and sanctity endeared him to all people hoped to expand the horizons of charity when he convoked the Second Vatican Council

In these times of change, the age of the atom, the space prober, of the cold war, of the search for social justice—in these first years of the pontificate of Pope Paul VI, we admire the Holy Father's selfless devotion to updating the ecumenical spirit of the Church—the spirit of Christ's charity.

"... So there abide faith, hope and charity, these three, but the greatest of these is charity."

They That Instruct Many To Justice

Sister Mary Gertrude, principal, is the guiding influence in activating the Ursuline method of education in the lives of 560 students. The administrator's varied duties range from presenting awards at the Honors Assembly, distributing classroom flags, to teaching third year Latin, and moderating the Student Council. Sister received her Master's degree from Catholic University of America,

Behind The Scenes

Mr. Don Mayer and Mr. John Konwinski are the original "do-it-yourself" men of St. Ursula Academy. Their creative touch is evident in the beautifully landscaped grounds outside and ever present repair jobs inside.

Mrs. Mabel Higgins, faithful attendance secretary, confers with Miss Katherine Brogan on such vital issues as college transcripts for seniors, quarterly report cards, records.

To our culinary queens go orchids for all the delicious meals planned by Mrs. Maude Espen, Mrs. Sara Zmudzinski, Mrs. Velma Abel, Mrs. Lucy Haupricht, Mrs. Eleanor Granata.

Mr. Howard Kutz, engineer, checks the boiler pressure in the furnace room as part of his schedule. Mr. Kutz finds the maintenance job an unending one.

Mrs. Clara Hendricks is a familiar face during after school hours as she busily goes about cleaning so that all will be ready for the 8:25 a.m. bell.

Extracurriculars Demand Dedication

Man must live in harmony with his neighbor for life itself requires justice in activity

At 2:50 p.m., the ear-shattering clang of the bell signals the end of another day's classes at St. Ursula Academy. Rushing feet and jostling shoulders find their ways to lockers, as buses wait for the homeward-bound students.

For some girls, however, the day extends into late afternoon, the bell merely heralding the beginning of another series of activities. Assembly practice, dance decorating, or myriad club meetings keep students active after class. The Student Council serves as the co-ordinating factor behind the religious, socio-cultural, and athletic organizations. These extra-curriculars cultivate and nurture the diversified interests of students, allowing them to determine their aptitudes and extend their abilities, thus preparing for their places in the world.

The young women of today need a well-rounded education, consisting not only of academic knowledge but also that knowledge best gained through experience in a variety of fields. We believe that the Ursuline system of extracurriculars contributes to this overall development; learning can be fun. One can gain practical knowledge while still having a good time, and it is through this system of give-and-take that man lives in harmony with his neighbor, combining justice with activity.

Reflection, Renewal, and Resolution

Father Leo Regan O.P.

conducts annual retreat;

stresses mental prayer

Assistance at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass was one of the privileges experienced during retreat

Father Leo Regan begins his discussion of the joyful mysteries of the Rosary at the annual retreat in January. Father stressed reciting the Rosary as a perfect way to meditate.

Dorothy Craver, Nanette Barbee, and Tana Boston found retreat an ideal chance to ask questions which had been troubling them for some time. Father Leo Regan O.P. gave many hours to private conferences and offered advice during informal chats before and after school.

Janet Toth takes time out to reflect and to do some spiritual bookkeeping.

Elaine Roberts and her three attendants, Nancy Wieck, Janis Humphrey, and Mary Helen O'Connell, were chosen by the seniors to lead the May procession. Elaine will have the honor of crowning the Blessed Virgin as Queen of May in the annual spring ceremony at which the entire school assists. This year will be the first time that the new Italian marble statue of Our Lady donated by the classes of 1962 and 1963 will be used.

Seniors Lead Procession To Honor Our Lady As Queen of May

The entire student body and faculty, awaiting the coronation of the Virgin Mary, sing hymns of praise and devotion at the annual May crowning. For the coronation a senior girl and her two attendants are elected by their fellow classmates, and the cross bearer leads the procession around the campus to the grotto, singing the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Achievement awards are presented later that day at the Honors Assembly.

Promoting interest for prospective students from the area grade schools are the Future Teachers of America, Lynn Steinmetz, secretary, Joan Gabel, vice-president; Joan Lahmeyer, Barb Bertke, Judy Wirries, Joyce Wesolowski, Elaine Roberts, Carol Breidenbach, president, and Pat Bauer, treasurer. Bev Leith, Lynette Pietkowski, and Sharon Smolinski set out on their journey to orientate students on life and studies at St. Ursula's.

Future Teachers In Training; Promote Enrollment

As part of their agenda, F.T.A. members visit grade schools and talk to prospective S & A students. At Cathedral Mary L. Grisvard found a multitude of questions needing answers.

Mrs. Charles McColl and her daughter Patricia studied a portion of Macbeth together as they participated in part of F.T.A.'s observance of National Catholic Education Week, November 10-16.

Junior Council on World Affairs, keeping versed on contemporary issues, invited Councilman Howard Cook to speak at one of the monthly meetings. Questions posed after the lecture ranged from revising the state constitution to the advantages of the city manager form of government. Betsy Gallagher, secretary, and Elly Pankrotz, treasurer, were the last to leave.

Operation Information for J.C.W.A.

National politics in the person of President Lyndon Johnson confronted the officers of our JCWA, Cathy Gerken, and Joan Ehret, at the September 21 Democratic Ox Roast. The girls stopped trembling from utter astonishment long enough to let an on-the-spot SCROLL photographer snap the picture.

With Catherine Lenga keeping score, and Janis Humphrey, Joan Ehret, and Catherine Gerken prepared for consultation, Marcia Kaptur gives a history of Liberia, Africa, answering a bonus question in the Toledo-area J.C.W.A. "Quiz Bowl."

Seniors Stage 'Meet Me In St. Louis'

1904 world's fair sets scene for rollicking comedy

The Senior Class of 1964 presented "Meet Me In St. Louis," March 7 and 8 at Ursuline Auditorium. With the help of the underclassmen, seniors completely sold out both performances. As the curtain rises on the second act, Mr. and Mrs. Smith (Rick Henzler and Madonna McGrath) tell their eldest daughter Rose (Cathy Kanary) to enjoy herself at the opening dance of the fair. Boys from the University of Toledo, Central Catholic, and St. Francis de Sales high schools participated in the fast-moving, song and dance comedy. When the father informs his four daughters that they are going to move from St. Louis, Missouri, to New York City just as the World's Fair opens, Rose, Esther, Agnes, and Tootie do all in their power to change the inevitable — and succeed!

Posing in the living room of the Smith family, members of the cast are: Lucille Pentard (Kathy Forrester), Lon Smith (Tom Radecki), Grandpa (Art Drewyar), Katie (Louise Anderson), John Shephard (John Wilmes), Conductor (Tim Bolinger), Mr. Dodge (Tom Witherell), Fred Gregory (Jeff Hellrung), Mrs. Waughap (Mary Jo Morwessel), and Mr. Duffy (John Tincher). Seated on divan: Rose (Cathy Kanary), Mr. Smith (Rick Henzler), Mrs. Smith (Madonna McGrath), and Esther (Liz Clarke). On the floor: Agnes (Elly Pankratz), Tootie (Mary Jo Blanchard), and Ida Boothby (Janice Klein).

Sister Mary Alice receives a 10-year award for Volunteer Red Cross Service as a member of the Office of Educational Relations Committee, through which school and youth programs are conducted. Mrs. D. M. Humphries, vice-chairman, Recognition and Records, Office of Volunteers, Greater Toledo Area Chapter, American Red Cross presented the pin in November.

Recent addition to the extracurricular organizations of the school, the Academy Chess Club meets every Tuesday from 3 to 4 p.m. Under the direction of Sister Mary Victoria, their moderator, Darlene Miller, Cathy Nolan, Linda Shuler, Mary Ann Conklin, Susan Stein, Marcia Nachtrab, and Kathy Griffin, play for enjoyment and skill in the art of chess.

Red Cross, Chess Clubs Maintain Busy Schedules

Red Cross members enact a scene from the life of Clara Barton, the founder of the American Red Cross. Maureen Metz, a wounded soldier, is watched by "General" Kathleen Streicher as Susan Schira, playing Clara Barton, ministers to him.

Mrs. Evelyn Kiefer from the Chapterhouse of Toledo Area Red Cross visits with Barbara Reid (Sister Mary) and Cinda Wannemacher after speaking on the qualifications a Red Cross volunteer worker needs. Mrs. Kiefer devoted much time to answering questions on student Red Cross activity.

Amateur Thespians Learn Stagecraft

Life on the farm has trying moments as the handsome stranger (Diana Prala) attempts to elope with the fair and desirable Daisey May (Kathleen Johnson), while her father (K m Roth) finds this the ideal moment for a "brief" lecture. This was one of the many original skits produced by Drama members.

The Drama Club officers, Thelma Maier, vice-president; Madonna McGrath, president; and Jan Inglis, secretary-treasurer, along with Mother Mary Charles, moderator, directed the club's annual dinner, A Valentine's Day event. The amateur thespians meet each Thursday night, produce 3 one-act plays, and contribute stage equipment with the proceeds from productions.

The Drama Department sponsored a formal dinner for club members in February. Now an annual affair, the evening begins with a catered supper and proceeds on to a student-directed entertainment hour.

Emcee, Mr. William Coyle entertained co-workers following the Festa Kickoff dinner, Feb. 23. Senior dancers added talents to the program

Mr. Harold Knight examines Festa supplies as Sister Catherine Angela, Cathedral principal, Mr. Roy Bennett, and Mr. Cormac DeLaney confer. The Festa is held to raise funds for the Ursuline educational expansion program. Festa Day, April 12, was a gala affair of fish ponds, country store, record hop, candy booths, baked goods—fun for all the family

World's Fair Trip Via Cherry Blossom Festa

From scraps of netting, ribbon, and silk, Sister St. Simon whips up dresses and finery for story book dolls sold at the Cherry Blossom Festa. Many Sisters (Seamsters Union #2413 and #4025) assist in this year round hobby.

Right: Career Day, an annual Student Council event initiated to inform the student body about various business opportunities, brought Miss Julia Mae Conlin to speak on the field of interior decorating at the November 22 program. Middle: Father Leo Ferreria, Dean of the College of Steubenville, participated in an assembly, sponsored by F.T.A. to acquaint the girls with the curriculum and facilities of Catholic colleges, of which the University of Detroit, Mary Manse, and Marquette were also represented. Left: An organ recital was given by the jovial Shay Torrent and Axel Alexander through the courtesy of Grinnell Brothers; all these programs certainly did much to lighten the load of study.

Dr. Robert Christin, English professor at the University of Notre Dame, spoke on the intellectual-emotional approach to literary criticism at a November assembly. During an informal poetry hour, Dr. Christin delighted seniors with excerpts from e e cummings.

Dash of Seasoning Spices Assemblies

"A Room for a King" by Graham DuBois was enacted by members of the Drama Club, Kathy Forrester, Louise Anderson, Kathy Lenga, Rosalyn Beres, Jane Stechschulte, Rosemary Kanary, and Jan Inglis, under the direction of Mother Mary Charles, for the December 19 Christmas program. Drama Club, A Cappella, orchestra, and the newly-formed String-Quartet combined talents for the assembly climaxed by the Nativity tableau, and Spanish, French, and German Christmas melodies.

Student Council Coordinates Extracurricular Activities

Girls on Student Council represent all of the clubs, organizations and four classes at St. Ursula Academy. The officers represent the council at the Area Student Council meetings once a month. Members are First row: Carol Briedenbach, Patricia Dalton, Jeanne Haas, treasurer; Sara Joyce, vice president; Judith Billmaier, president; Cathy Kanary, secretary; Mary Jo Morwessel, Susan Pawlowski. Second row: Janice Hensien, Barbara Bertke, Elizabeth Gallagher, Julie Richter, Joan Ehret, Marcia Burger, Mary Helen O'Connell, Janet Helfrich. Third row: Elizabeth Hen-

The Mother-Daughter Bowling Tournament, held at Ottawa Lanes, is an event which is anticipated eagerly by the members of the Athletic Association and their mothers. Mrs. John Hensien and Mrs. Elton Miller show Janice and Barb how it's done. Mrs. Harry Overberg, physical education instructor, and daughter, Sodhoh, look on as mothers exhibit bowling skills.

Sister Mary Gabriel, Athletic Association Moderator, presents the annual trophy, donated by Ottawa Lanes, to Mrs. Arthur Toffler and her daughter Carol, the high-scorers in the Mother-Daughter Bowling Tournament held December 2.

Y.C.S. Encourages Catholic Action

After a last minute check on her speech, Mary Jane Tank, president of the Toledo-area Y.C.S. Federation, prepared to leave for the Young Christian Students' annual convention at St. Joseph College, Rensselaer, Indiana. Accompanying her are Reverend Thomas Redding, Federation moderator, Connie Weissenberger, Janet LaJeunesse, and Karson Cady, Officers at S.U.A.

Listening intently to practical advice from Father Raymond Sheperd at one of their group meetings are Janet LaJeunesse, Jan Inglis, Mary Alderson, Karson Cady, Constance Weissenberger, Joan Schriber. Through group apostolates, organizes movements to shape healthy attitudes and habits at home, at school, in the neighborhood, at work, and at recreation. The purpose of YCS is training leaders who will be instrumental in bringing a base in their age group closer to Christ. The tools which YCS uses are inquiry and discussion, inspired by the Gospels.

The result of C.S.M.C.'s mission efforts is in evidence as Fr. W E Wilson of the diocesan Missions Office, and Fr. Gerald Flatter, O.M.I., receive a check from Angie Gladieux, Karson Cady, Barb Berike, and Sister St. Mark

C.S.M.C. Apostolate World-Oriented

Checking on their progress, Judy Zurek and Mary Frances Dillon roll and pack leper bandages in boxes as Brenda Diemer and Kathleen Szymanowski wrap the packages for mailing. This project, a rather unique one, was carried out by the willing workers who sent them to foreign countries. The entire project was sponsored by the C.S.M.C. in connection with their work in mission areas.

The thought of "eight passing days left 'till Christmas" gave Kathy Thomas, Pat Dunlay, and Mary Alderson qualms about distributing mail to rooms. The Mission Office offers discount prices on Christmas deliveries.

Sodality Life-To Jesus Through Mary

Anxiously checking her watch for the thousandth time, Mary Jo Blanchard waits impatiently for the Chicago-bound bus. Along with Betty Huss, Elly Pankratz, and eleven other Sodolists, she went to the Summer School of Catholic Action from August 19-24, which over 3400 Sodolists and moderators, including Sr. Catherine Therese and Sr. Marie Michelle, attended

The Sodality Closed Retreat, held Jan. 27-29, found 35 girls traveling to Our Lady of the Pines in Fremont, Ohio. The peaceful atmosphere set the theme of recollection for all, as the retreat provided memorable conferences with Father John Schwarz, S.J. The Sodality officers here with Father are Marcia Bugert, Mary Helen O'Connell and Nancy Wieck. Below, Monsignor Robert Maher spoke to Sodolists and interested students on PAVLA, Papal Volunteers for Latin America.

SUA's candidates for the Toledo Area Student Council queen contest are Janis Humphrey, Mary Augello, Eleanor Prankratz, queen, Bertie Huss, and Colleen Goergen. The student body fully agreed that they will represent the Academy both beautifully and capably in the area-wide competition.

Near the close of a memorable autumn evening, the auditorium is filled with couples dancing to the melodic songs of the Silver Six.

Sherla Mattimore, Marianne Beins, Cheryl Kinney, Kitsie Bruss, Bobbie Reid, Karson Cady, and their escorts all agree that the refreshment table is a very popular place,

Taking a break during the Student Council dance, "Scenes of a Sleepy Autumn," are Cathy Kanary and Marguerite Carroll, with escorts John Groden and Al Clarke. In the Thanksgiving mood were nearly 150 couples enjoying a delightful evening

The mall's park bench provides an excellent spot for Beverly Bertke, Ron Scott, Kathleen Streicher, and John Moore to pause from dancing at the November 29 Student Council dance, "Scenes of a Sleepy Autumn," an annual semi-formal affair at SUA.

Good musicianship and responsibility made Diane Marciniak senior, the choice of Sr. Mary Gertrude and Sr. Carmencita for the Music Department National School Orchestra Award.

Joyce Turner, Mary Ann Wojciechowski, Patricia Carlson, Diane Marciniak will receive diplomas from the Ursuline Conservatory of Music during the graduation ceremonies. Joyce majored in piano; Mary Ann, piano; Patricia, piano and organ; Diane, violin.

Of Sounds

Sound of Music Echoes Across Years of Memories

Sophomores prepare for St. Ursula Day breakfast. Marie Revells and Sue Schira distribute napkins, Kathy Wersell plates, and Sue St. Aubin touches up the table decorations.

The hall was alive with the sound of Ursuline singing the praises of our patroness on her October 21 feast day. The day opened with Holy Mass followed by breakfast in the cafeteria. Members of the Sophomore Class acted as hostesses. Then students and faculty assembled for a musical version of St. Ursula's life. Parodies based on the "Sound of Music" score and written by Sister St. Mark were sung by the four classes.

TB or Not TB, That Is The Question

F.N.A. aids
in health survey

Anxiety, consternation, fear and resignation are but a few words to describe the long line of freshmen waiting for the nurse to test them. With sleeves rolled up and permission slips signed the girls are ready, come what might.

The Tuberculosis Clinic of the Toledo Board of Health initiated a city-wide plan for early detection of those exposed to T.B. The test was a completely painless procedure all freshmen agree. Don't you, Mary Jane Ryan!

A sight of relief and the thought that it was all over gave Kathleen Carroll reason for a grin. The skin test given to freshmen early in the year was sponsored by Future Nurses.

Ball Is End Word In S.U.A. Sports

As squads cheer, "We want a basket!" Nancy Geagan obliges by trying an overhead shot to gain points for her team in an exciting basketball game. Connie Crowley screens out Chris Doster to give Nancy ample time.

Seniors Diane Marciniak, Karen Ward, and Pat O'Connell try to convince skeptical Kathy Holland of the value of spiking the volleyball over the net. Intramural volleyball competition is keen as "the" autumn sport.

Freshmen watch with enthusiasm and anticipation as Jane Luebbe whips the ball over the net. Volleyball is only one of many sports which are a part of the athletic program at S.U.A. Basketball ranks high on the list of favorites. The individual skills of each girl must be coordinated to make the team move as a unit. The climax to the sports year is the annual intramurals which raise class spirits and team participation.

Talented Freshmen Entertain Guests

Home Ec., with all its cooking, sewing, and homemaking facilities, was explained by Freshman hostess Cynthia Miller to Anne Meidt and Jill Oswald, grade schoolers touring S.U.A. Eighth Grade Day introduces prospective students to the curriculum, organizations, and social life of the Academy

Upper: Refreshments came first as these freshmen girls act as hostesses to visiting freshmen. Middle: Next comes spirited entertainment with specialized dances from our talented Frosh. Lower: Finally, Eighth Grade Day draws to a close as these members of the clean-up crew wash dishes.

The New Froshy Minstrels, fresh from Sister Marie Michelle's Homeroom 25, sang and danced for Eighth Grade Day, February 9. Sponsored by the Freshman Class, this event included specialty dances performed by Marcia Beddoes, Annette Adams, and Cheryl Buck, showing real talent in our Frosh

Meeting Place Of Minds And Ideas

Commemorating the 400th anniversary of the birth of William Shakespeare, Library Club members invited representatives from area schools to tea and a program. After Mary Jo Morwessel's welcome address, a feature movie was shown depicting the immortal Bard's life at Stratford and London. Guests were invited from Cardinal Stritch, Central, McAuley, St. Francis, and Notre Dame Academy.

The Christmas Library Book Fair fascinated Mrs. George Forrester and Mrs. Cloyd Bugert. S.U.A.'s Library Club, under the direction of Miss Catharine Gallagher, sponsors the fair, using the proceeds to buy books and equipment for the library.

The members of the Library Club, headed by officers Tanya Nichpor, Sue Bruner, Ellen Jane Goll and Mary Jo Morwessel become acquainted with library science and encourage better reading by sponsoring various contests and reviewing books suggested by their moderator, Miss Gallagher

Staff Salutes Alumnae, Academy Council

On her winter wedding day, Colleen Merce '61 now Mrs. Jack Walters returned to St. Ursula to share her happiness with the nuns. Sister Mary Vincent, moderator of the Alumnae and responsible for the publishing of the Alumnae News, admires her banquet.

Senior Kathleen Schira gets a preview of Alumnae Association operations as she helps Sister M. Vincent sort and pack Festa supplies for distribution.

At the first Academy Council meeting, Mrs. John Gallagher, secretary, pours coffee for Mrs. James Rafferty and Mr. Edward Nowak. The Council meets periodically to coordinate SUA activities for social and educational functions.

Mr. and Mrs. Lessley Kolbeck speak with Miss Mary Dlugosielski about the progress of Kristine. This is one of many ways in which the parents, under the auspices of St. Ursula Academy Council, meet the faculty, get a complete picture of the course of study, and get acquainted with other parents.

Art editors Patsy McColl and Mary Jo Morwessel, photography editors Joan Gabel and Dianna Ransom, and business editors Susan Pawlowski and Nancy Wieck are responsible for a major part in the production of the yearbook. The SCROLL has been successful in competition. The 1963 volume won honors in its class at the Detroit Student Press Association.

Anna Mary Bookmyer assists section editors Sharon Smolinski, Marjorie Carroll, Eileen Huss, Kathleen Snyder, Kathleen Dillon and Betty Huss. The staff appreciates the efforts of moderators Sister Thomas More and Mrs. Harry Holt who have provided their time and invaluable assistance.

Fearless co-editors Suzette Kelier and Marcia Kaptur race the clock against omnipresent deadlines while 'tempus fugit.'

Stick-to-itiveness is the necessary virtue for pastors Joyce Weslowski, Mary Lee Cannan, Lynette Piatkowski, Beverly Zawodny, and Kathy Forrester.

Underclassmen Advance In Maturity

As they develop in both age and wisdom under the guidance of the Ursulines

The foundation for successful adult life is laid early in the high school years. As freshman, the formation has just begun; the future holds dreams and hopes of much to be accomplished.

As the freshman year is a beginning, the Sophomore year is a new awakening, a slow process in realizing the important things of life as a blueprint for the future begins to form.

The junior year offers the opportunity to utilize skills gained through two years of basic study; the transition from childhood to adulthood reaches its turning point.

So just as an experiment progresses from outline, to research, to personal conclusion, the maturation of young women is an orderly process. For freshmen, the ideas; for sophomores, the study; for juniors, the application. This transition takes place in a world separate from children, separate from adults—the world of underclassmen.

Although her work ceases momentarily, Christine Roughton has a good start in finding the solution sets of inequalities for this problem in Algebra I. These solutions will later apply to the analysis of verbal problems.

Micro-organisms Fascinate Biology Experts

Marie Revells and Mark Potrzebowski discover a second use for table decorations at the autumn Student Council dance. They were among over 100 couples at the semi-formal mixer.

Observing movements of protozoa, Bernadette Balcombe carefully sketches the physical structure of paramecium. The science department has been able to purchase microscopes for every lab table and Sister M. Dorothy's students use them frequently in studying various specimens. The Biology year would not be complete without the traditional leaf hunt, animal dissection, and clam shell projects. Study of science at SUA emphasizes the Christian approach to the examination of nature's phenomenon.

S. U. A. Participates in Pilgrimage

Voices of young and old blended together in strains of 'Queen of the Holy Rosary, bless our Toledo Diocese' in the annual procession to the Grotto at Ladyglen, the Ursuline replica of Lourdes. A guard of honor was formed by the cadets who led the groups in pilgrimage.

In October, Our Lady, Queen of the Holy Rosary, was honored by the entire Ursuline family during the special pilgrimage to the grotto at Ladyglen. Representatives of Mary Manse College, St. Ursula Academy, Nazareth Hall, and St. Angela Hall paid tribute to Our Blessed Lady by Benediction and by recitation of the Rosary during the procession to the grotto.

Amy Norton, Dave Smith, Don McGraw, and Margaret Feeley sip "the pause that refreshes" at the hootenany sponsored by the Young Christian Students on October 4. A crowd of 300 students attended this event, the first in YCS history.

Adjusting the slide projector, Sister Mary Victoria begins a developmental reading class. With headquarters in the clinic, groups of girls meet periodically to improve in speed and comprehension. Seniors Reach Educational Plateau

As they win the struggle, receive the rose, light the way with faith, hope, and charity

Combine studies, retreat, trip, ball, play, publications; and the efforts of 140 young women; mix in a bit of jubilation and energy; activate for nine months—end product should resemble the ninety-second graduating class of S.U.A.

The Washington trip opened new worlds, as democracy became a living thing. Social high lights of the year included the senior ball, "Christmas Carousel", held on Dec. 27, and "Meet Me In St. Louis", a three act comedy presented in March. News coverage was supplied by six timely issues of the Ursuline. And the "year as it was" will remain forever young in the SCROLL.

With President Mary Heyman; vice president, Janice Klein; secretary, Mary Augello; and treasurer, Anne Darcy, the year's activities were fast moving and orderly.

One event remains—graduation. Many memories will accompany us as we walk to the familiar strains of "Melody in F". A small portion of our hearts will remain always at St. Ursula's drawing us back from time to time to recapture the memories which lived in the halls and classrooms." . . . across the years of memories, our hearts go out to you, to you."

St. John

Four members of the Senior Class returned to Washington, D.C. in January to visit the grave of President John F. Kennedy. Colleen Goergen, Janis Humphrey, Nancy Kuhn, and Betty Huss offered special tribute to the President by placing a spray of flowers near the grave. Long lines of visitors waited hours to view the flower-covered memorial and the eternal flame.

Waving flags surrounding the Washington Monument provide a patriotic atmosphere for Gay Mattera and Cathy Uhl. Seniors decided on late afternoon to visit this site and picture seekers rely on faithful cameras for lasting memories.

Learning how to balance books is only part of Jean McPartland's work in Mrs. Turrill's bookkeeping class. The course is a good preparation for secretarial work and accounting.

A most pleasant pastime for senior home economics students is planning their dream homes. Morsha Bailey and Kathleen Finn spend hours browsing through current magazines looking for new and different ideas. Both girls have studied colonial furniture and find it hard to decide between classical and modern styles, but they plan on choosing economically.

Lunch on the campus, civilian clothes, and informal entertainment are the order of the day at the annual school picnic in May. A group of seniors settle down to cheer their team on to victory in the potato sack race. Faculty and students anticipate this fun-filled climax to the year.

CHRISTMAS CAROUSEL ADDS SWIRLY TO

A general view of the seniors and their escorts on a truly memorable evening

Betty Huss and midshipman Ronald Stoll dance to the melodic strains of the Steven Snyr Orchestra at the December 27 Senior Ball, "Christmas Carousel," held in the auditorium.

Seniors' Holiday Season

The carousel centerpiece provides an attractive spot for Elaine Roberts, Mike Ligibel, Barbara Bertke, John Fletcher, an Air Force cadet, Anne Streicher, Dave Connors, Nancy Kuhn, and Jim Fish, home from Notre Dame, to pose for pictures at the senior's formal ball. Anne was co-chairman of the decoration committee, but all agreed that the girls' floor-length gowns also added substantially to the gay decor of the entire dance.

Physics, a fundamental science of the natural world, is studied by junior and senior future scientists under the guidance of Sister Mary Cordula. The course, as developed by the Physical Science Study Committee, is divided into four parts. Part one is an introduction devoted to the fundamental notions of time, space and matter. Part two concentrates on the study of light. The student turns to dynamics with a study of motion in Part three and of electricity and atomic structure in Part four. Determined to capitalize on all opportunities, Mary Jane Tank and Christine Parachek eye Bridget Gribbin for reports of outer space.

The Future Demands Commitment

The reception of the coveted Bishop's Cross, awarded for excellence in religion, climaxes the graduation ceremony the torch has been passed

"My call is to the young in heart . . . to the stout in spirit . . ."

Man dreams, aspires, works. He sets a goal and moves toward attainment. Education, experience, failure, success, mold him into a thinking, intelligent being. As the ninety-second graduating class reaches the apex of its development, the challenge of the future demands that the new generation convert their sense of duty into an active symbol of the American dream.

"The energy, the faith, the devotion which we bring to this endeavor will light our country and all who serve it—and the glow from this fire can truly light the world." (President John Fitzgerald Kennedy)

LIBBEY-OWENS-FORD

a Great Name in Glass

TOLEDO 2, OHIO

What a wonderful Open World

Have you noticed schools like this on your travels? Probably, because new buildings are springing up everywhere. They are beautiful and functional structures with large glass areas to create an "open-world" atmosphere to eliminate the feeling of being boxed in.

Wherever you live, work, shop or travel, you'll find L-O-F Glass making it more enjoyable. In homes, motels, schools and stores. In offices and factories. In hospitals and churches. In cars, buses, trains and planes.

There's an L-O-F Glass that insulates windows. It's called Thermopane® insulating glass. Another subdues sun heat and glare. L-O-F Glass that makes automobiles safer. L-O-F Glass to do a thousand things.

And when anyone needs glass, there's an authority on it nearby—your local independent L-O-F Glass Distributor or Dealer. His name is in the telephone book Yellow Pages under "Glass". Call him.

Laboratories, shops and studyrooms are separated from twin classroom buildings by a broad, central court. Ithaca Senior High School, Ithaca, N.Y. Architects: Perkins & Will, White Plains, N.Y.

In 1924 Libbey—a division of Owens-Illinois—perfected a unique fire process for safeguarding the rims of fine glassware. They called this glassware 'Safedge'—and to prove the process was as good as claimed they backed it with the most dramatic guarantee in glass history:

"If any 'Safedge' glass becomes chipped on the rim from any cause whatsoever, it will be replaced free of cost." This offer, of course, still stands.

Today, Libbey "Everyday Crystal" with the famous 'Safedge' guarantee graces even the finest tables, yet sells at low prices.
